Take a journey through our past ...

1824: Land granted to William Allen of Howard County, Missouri.

1831: William and Rachel Allen sell to John Hightower.

1831-34: Log cabin is completed.

1834: John and Polly Hightower sell to Jonathan Q. Atkins for $620.

1853-54: Atkins completes a large addition to the house, more than doubling its size.

1904: Mary Atkins sells to Rudolph Schroeder for $7,605.

1920: Rudolph and Annie Schroeder sell to Mary Johnson for $21,175.

1976: House is designated a Clay County historical landmark.

2005: Working with the Johnson family, the City of Gladstone acquires the house and a portion of the property to preserve.

2007: House is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

2009: City of Gladstone acquires the Big Shoal Cemetery through the Missouri Attorney General.

2013 – April 27: The Atkins-Johnson Farm and Museum opens.
